 - (3) the dates by which completed ballot papers will have to be returned;
 - (4) the date upon which the result of the election will be announced.

- 4 The election will be by postal ballot of those entitled to vote. So far as reasonably practicable, all members entitled to vote in an election shall be sent ballot papers at their address in the Union records; and shall be enabled to vote without expense to them individually, and without interference or constraint by any other member of the Union. Where the law allows, the National Executive Council may determine that an election shall be by either postal ballot and/or electronic ballot.
- 5 Candidates nominated for the election will be given the opportunity of preparing an election address, to be no longer than a maximum specified by the National Executive Council and approved by the Returning Officer, which will be sent (free of charge to the candidates) to all members entitled to vote together with the ballot paper. Candidates must not choose to make election addresses which contain statements contrary to Rule B Aims and Objectives. Furthermore election addresses must not contain statements of a discriminatory, disparaging, racist or sexist nature or that make false accusations against members, or staff, of the Union and it shall be treated as a disciplinary offence contrary to Rules I. 2.1 and 2.2 to do so. This provision is subject to any relevant statutory provision.
- 6 The Returning Officer shall determine the validity of any complaint made to her/him about the conduct or fairness of the election, and shall have the right to require an election to be held again in whole or in part if not satisfied that the election complies with the requirements of law and these Rules, and if the Returning Officer considers it reasonable to exercise the right.
- 7 The National Executive Council shall have the power to determine any matter of procedure or organisation or administration of or relating to the election, including the power to determine the method of voting (whether to be by simple majority; by single transferable vote; by multi-transferable vote; or by some other system) provided that the person(s) securing the greatest number(s) of votes according to the system employed shall be the person(s) declared elected, so long as they are and remain eligible for election.

Schedule D: disciplinary procedures

The following procedures shall be adopted for the hearing of any disciplinary charge by a Branch Disciplinary Sub-Committee, a Regional or Service Group Disciplinary Sub-Committee, or the National Executive Council or its Disciplinary Sub-Committee or any other body as decided by the National Executive Council:

At the same time the member shall be sent copies of any written material and correspondence to be considered in relation to the charge, together with the report of any investigation, and shall be told the date, time and place at which the charge against her or him is to be heard.
- 2 The member shall be allowed to submit, not later than 7 days prior to the hearing, any written material in support of her/his case.
- 3 The member shall be entitled to be represented at the hearing by another person of her/his choice (subject to the approval of the sub-committee, such approval not to be unreasonably refused).
- 4 The Committee hearing the charge will ensure that the charged member's rights are protected in that the provisions of Rule I and Schedule D.1 been scrupulously applied.
- 5 In the event that the provisions of Rule I and Schedule D.1 have not been properly applied the charge will be referred back to the body which brought the disciplinary charge.
- 6 At the hearing, the member shall be asked whether she/he admits or denies the charge. If she/he admits it, the Committee hearing the charge shall then consider whether and to what extent they should exercise any of the disciplinary powers conferred by Rule.
- 7 If she/he denies the charge, the representative of the Branch, Regional Committee, Service Group Committee, National Executive Council or General Secretary as appropriate (who is called "Union Representative" in this Schedule) shall state the case against the member in the presence of the member and any representative of the member, and may call witnesses. She/he will produce any documents which she/he claims support the charge.
- 8 The member or the member's representative shall have the opportunity to ask questions of the Union Representative and the witnesses.
- 9 The members of the Committee hearing the charge may ask any questions they think appropriate of the Union Representative and of any witnesses, and may question the member concerned about the charge.
- 10 The Union Representative shall have the opportunity to re-examine her/his witnesses on any matter about which they have been questioned by the member charged, her/his representative, and by members of the Committee hearing the charge.
- 11 The member or her/his representative shall put her/his case in the presence of the Union Representative, may call witnesses, and may produce any document she/he wishes that is relevant to the charge.

- 12 The Union Representative shall have the opportunity to ask questions of the member or the member's representative and witnesses.
- 13 The members of the Committee hearing the charge shall have the opportunity to ask questions of the member, or her/his representative, and witnesses.
- 14 The member or the member's representative shall have the opportunity to re-examine her/his witnesses on any matter about which they have been questioned by the Union Representative and/or by members of the Committee hearing the charge.
- 15 No written material or documents shall be submitted which do not comply with the provisions of existing rule numbers D.1, D.2, D.5 and D.9 of this schedule.
- 16 No new charge may be raised at the hearing.
- 17 After all witnesses have been heard and documents produced, the Committee hearing the charge (i) may ask the person presenting the charge to sum up the case; and (whether she/he does so or not) (ii) must then permit the member charged, or her/his representative, to address them. The member or her/his representative shall have the right to speak last. In summing up no new matters may be introduced.
- 18 At any time during the procedure set out above, members of the Committee hearing the charge may seek clarification of any statement made, and may enquire of either party as to the evidence that is to be called.
- 19 The Committee hearing the charge has an absolute discretion to adjourn the hearing to allow either party to produce further evidence, or for any other reason.
- 20 The Committee hearing the charge shall then consider in private whether the charge is proved to their satisfaction, or not, on the evidence presented before them. All members of the Committee taking part in the discussion must have been present throughout the entirety of the hearing. No new matter can be raised against the member concerned. If any point of uncertainty arises, the Committee may recall both parties to clear the point. In such a case, both parties shall return notwithstanding that only one is concerned with the point giving rise to doubt.
- 21 If the Committee decides that the charge is not proved, they shall dismiss it.
- 22 If the Committee decides that the charge is proved, they shall then decide what, if any, action to take. Before determining its decision, the Committee may consider anything that the member wishes to submit in mitigation.
- 23 The Committee hearing the charge may inform the member of their decision orally, but it shall in any event be confirmed to the member in writing within 14 days of the conclusion of the hearing. Where the charge is found proved, the member shall be notified in writing of (a) her/his right of appeal, (b) the body to whom the appeal should be directed, and, (c) the date on which the four-week time limit for appealing expires.
- 24 Any penalty imposed on a member will not take effect until the expiry of the time limit within which the member can submit an appeal or, if an appeal has been submitted, until such time as the appeal has been determined.

- 25 No person who is a witness, or who has investigated the charge prior to its being brought, shall sit on the Committee hearing the charge or any appeal.
- 26 (1) If a member intends to appeal, she/he must exercise her/his right to do so by writing to the Secretary of the appropriate Committee within four weeks of her/his being notified in writing of the decision subject to the Appeal.
- (2) At least three weeks' notice shall be given to the member of the date, place and time at which the appeal is to be heard.
- (3) A member may appeal upon any or all of the following grounds:
- (a) that the provisions of Rule I and Schedule D were not complied with at or before the original hearing, and/or;
 - (b) that the Committee's decision to find a charge or charges proven was unreasonable, and/or;
 - (c) the sanction imposed by the Committee was unreasonable.
- (4) Where an appeal is submitted in accordance with Schedule D26(3)(a), whether or not it is also submitted on other grounds, the Appeal Committee shall consider this ground of appeal first of all. The member or her/his representative shall present their case on this point in accordance with Schedule D.11, D.12, D.13 and D.14. The union representative shall then put forward their case on this point in the same way. The Appeal Committee shall then deliberate on this point in private. If the Appeal Committee finds that Rule I and Schedule D were complied with they shall dismiss this ground of appeal and proceed to hear any other grounds of appeal. If the Appeal Committee finds that Rule I and/or Schedule D were not complied with they shall refer the charge(s) back to the body which brought the disciplinary charge.
- (5) Where an appeal is submitted in accordance with Schedule D26(3)(b), whether or not it is also submitted in accordance with Schedule D26(3)(c), the appeal shall take the form of a rehearing of the charge, in accordance with the procedure set out above for the initial hearing. No material that was not before the initial hearing may be introduced, unless it is material evidence which could not reasonably have been available to either party at the time of the initial hearing. The appeal hearing shall not reopen consideration of any charge(s) which were dismissed at the initial hearing. If the Appeal Committee decides that a charge is not proved they shall dismiss that charge. If the Appeal Committee decides that one or more charges are proved, they shall then decide whether to uphold the sanction imposed at the initial hearing, or to substitute a lesser sanction.
- (6) Where an appeal is submitted in accordance with Schedule D26(3)(c), the Committee shall consider anything that the member or her/his representative wishes to submit in mitigation. The Appeal Committee shall then decide whether to uphold the sanction imposed at the initial hearing, or to substitute a lesser sanction.

UNION'S DUTY TOWARDS THE SCRUTINEER

- 9. Nothing in the terms of the scrutineer's appointment (including any additional functions specified in the appointment) shall be such as to make it reasonable for any person to call into question the scrutineer's independence in relation to the Union.
- 10. The union shall ensure that there is no interference with the scrutineer in carrying out the functions imposed on him/her by the terms of the appointment which would make it reasonable for any person to call into question the scrutineer's independence in relation to the Union.

16. Entitlement to vote in the ballot shall be accorded equally to all members in Great Britain. Those members of the Union who are overseas members for the purposes of the Act shall not be accorded entitlement to a vote.
17. The ballot shall be conducted so as to secure that, so far as is reasonably practicable, those voting do so in secret.
18. So far as is reasonably practicable, every member who is entitled to vote in the ballot shall, in accordance with these rules:

- (a) be sent a voting paper by post to his/her home address or another address that the member has requested that the union treat as his or her postal address in such time as to be received on or before the opening day of the ballot; and

21. When it is not practicable for a particular member to be sent a voting paper and return envelope by the date determined in accordance with these rules, a voting paper and return envelope may be sent to that member as soon as is reasonably practicable after that date, so as to give that member a convenient opportunity to vote by post.
22. The name of each member to whom a voting paper is sent shall be recorded in some form or record of members but not so as to make it reasonable for any person to call into question the secrecy of the ballot. This record shall be kept by the scrutineer for the period specified before disposal, as defined in rule 2.

MANNER OF VOTING

23. Every member who wishes to vote must return his/her voting paper to arrive at the address of the scrutineer on or before the date determined in accordance with these rules.
24. The scrutineer shall store in a secure place any voting papers returned to him/her undelivered and shall keep a record of any voting paper so returned.
25. The scrutineer shall be responsible for the safe custody and security of all returned envelopes and voting papers during the period of the ballot and for the period specified before disposal, as defined in rule 2. The scrutineer shall at all times take all reasonable steps to secure their safe custody so as to minimise the risk of any contravention of the requirements imposed by or under any enactment of these rules or the occurrence of any unfairness or malpractice.

COUNTING OF THE BALLOT

26. The ballot shall be conducted so as to secure that the votes are fairly and accurately counted by the scrutineer. Any inaccuracy in counting is to be disregarded for the purpose of this rule if it is accidental or on a scale which could not affect the results of the ballot.
27. The scrutineer shall before counting begins:
- (a) place the unused voting papers in a secure place; and
 - (b) keep a record of the number of voting papers so stored and a record of any voting papers issued under rule 21.

- 30. The scrutineer or if more than one of them the majority of them shall decide whether any voting paper shall be rejected as being invalid and shall mark each such voting paper “rejected”.
- 31. Those voting papers which are not rejected shall be counted.
- 32. After the count the scrutineer shall retain custody of all of the voting papers returned for the purpose of the ballot for the period specified before disposal, as defined in rule 2.

SCRUTINEER’S REPORT

- 33. As soon as is reasonably practicable after the last date for the return of voting papers the scrutineer shall make a report (“the scrutineer’s report”) to the Union in accordance with these rules. The scrutineer’s report shall state:

 - (i) is satisfied that there are no reasonable grounds for believing that there was any contravention of a requirement imposed by or under any enactment of these rules in relation to the ballot;
 - (ii) is satisfied that the arrangements made (whether by him/her or another person) with respect to the production, storage, distribution, return or other handling of the voting papers used in the ballot, and the arrangements for counting the votes, included all such security arrangements as were reasonably practicable for the purpose of minimising the risk that any interference or malpractice might occur;
 - (iii) is satisfied that he/she has been able to carry out his/her functions without any interference as would make it reasonable for any person to call his independence in relation to the union into question; and
 - (iv) has inspected the register of names and addresses of members of the Union or has examined a copy of the register supplied to him/her under these rules.
- 34. If he/she is not satisfied as to any of the matters set out in rule 33 (f) the report shall give particulars of his/her reasons for not being satisfied as to that matter.

- 35. If the scrutineer has inspected the register in accordance with these rules or has been requested to do so by a member, the report shall state:
- (a) whether the register has been inspected; in the case of each inspection whether it was at the request of a member of the union or at his/her own instance, and say, if appropriate, whether he/she declined to act on such a request; and
 - (b) whether any inspection of the register or any examination or copy of the register reveals any matters which he/she considers should be drawn to the attention of the union in order to assist in securing that the register is accurate and up-to-date, but shall not state the name of any member who has requested this inspection or examination.

COPY OF THE SCRUTINEER'S REPORT TO BE SENT TO THE CERTIFICATION OFFICER

- 36. A copy of the scrutineer's report shall be sent by the Union to the Certification Officer as soon as is reasonably practicable.

PUBLICISING THE RESULT OF THE BALLOT

- 37. The result of the ballot shall not be published until the Union has received the scrutineer's report.
- 38. Within three months from the date on which the union receives the scrutineer's report the executive shall:
- (a) send a copy of the report to every member to whom it is reasonably practicable to send such a copy; or
 - (b) take all such other steps for notifying the contents of the report to the members whether by publishing the report or otherwise as it is the practice of the union to take when matters of general interest to all its members need to be brought to their attention.
- 39. The union shall ensure that any notification given under rule 38(b) is accompanied by a statement that the union will on request supply the member with a copy of the report either:
- (a) free of charge; or
 - (b) on payment of such reasonable fee as may be specified in the notification, and ensure that a member who makes such a request to the union is supplied with a copy on payment of such a fee (if any) as has been notified to him/her.

1.0 PREAMBLE

- 1.1 This regulation was made by resolution of the National Executive Council on 13 June 2017. It will be reported to the National Delegate Conference and will have the force of rule unless, and until, it is not approved by a majority vote at Conference.

2.0 PURPOSE OF THE REGULATION

- 2.1 This regulation establishes the procedure to be used for investigating allegations of misconduct in relation to a UNISON employee by a UNISON member and for determining whether a UNISON member has been found on the balance of probabilities to have committed such misconduct which will constitute a breach of rule. In the event of allegations being upheld the Disciplinary Panel (see 4.1) shall decide what penalty or penalties to impose.
- 2.2 This procedure is to be adopted when such allegations are made because the National Executive Council is of the view that the Disciplinary Action Rule I, and the Disciplinary Procedures (schedule D), which govern the behaviour of members to each other and to the union, are not appropriate when its obligations as an employer have to be considered.
- 2.3 UNISON employees have the right not to be subject to acts of misconduct by UNISON members.

2.3.A DEFINITION OF MISCONDUCT: the following is a non-exhaustive list of misconduct:

- Verbal or physical abuse
- Disrespectful, threatening or intimidating behaviour
- Conduct which may expose a member of staff to ridicule, embarrassment or contempt
- Conduct which violates the dignity of the member of staff concerned
- Bullying or harassment
- Discrimination (which includes discrimination, harassment, or victimisation on grounds of race, gender, marital status/civil partnership, sexuality, gender identity, disability, age, creed or social class, or any other discriminatory conduct).

A member who commits an act of misconduct will be guilty of an offence as defined by Rule B.2.4, B.2.6, B.4.6, C.6.1, Rule I 2.1 and/or 2.2 in so far as they are applicable. A member who commits an act of discrimination involving a member of staff will be guilty of an offence as defined by Rules A.3, B.2.4, B.2.6, B.4.6, C.6.1, and I 2.3 (i) – (ii) in so far as they are applicable.

- 2.3.B Where allegations involve both misconduct in relation to a member of staff as well as conduct in relation to a member(s) under Rule I, the General Secretary or person delegated to act on their behalf, after consultation with the President, the Chair of the Staffing Committee and the Chair of the Development & Organisation Committee, shall decide how to proceed, for example whether there should be separate investigations and disciplinary procedures under both Appendix 2 and Rule I, or whether to address all the allegations under Rule I.

2.3.C SUSPENSION

2.3.C.1 If the member faces disciplinary investigation under Appendix 2, and it is considered appropriate in the interests of the member of staff, branch, or the union generally, the President shall have the power to suspend a member from office for a period of up to 60 calendar days in the first instance.

2.3.C.2 In exceptional circumstances, the President shall also have the discretion to extend the period of suspension, and such suspension is to be reviewed on a monthly basis.

3.0 INVESTIGATION PROCEDURE

3.1 The manager receiving the complaint shall, normally within seven working days, report the matter to the General Secretary or person delegated to act on their behalf.

3.2 The General Secretary or person delegated to act on their behalf, upon receipt of the allegation and within seven working days, shall notify the officer responsible for constitutional issues who will consult with the Head of HR and appoint an Investigation Team.

3.3 Subject to any guidance produced by the National Executive Committee, ACAS guidance (and in the case of Northern Ireland, the equivalent code of conduct) and good practice, the Investigation Team shall be able to conduct its investigation in whatever way it considers is appropriate, given the nature of the allegation(s).

3.4 On the recommendation of the Investigation Team, the General Secretary or person delegated to act on their behalf, after consultation with the Chair of the Staffing Committee, may require the member concerned not to come into contact with the employee while the investigation is proceeding, and until any consequent Disciplinary Hearing or Appeal Hearing is concluded; or impose any other condition or restriction on the member concerned as is reasonable and proportionate having regard to the interests of the employee and the member, the need to maintain confidentiality, or otherwise.

3.5 Depending upon the nature and complexity of the complaint, the Investigation Team will normally be expected to complete its investigation within 28 calendar days of its appointment. In the event that the Investigation Team believes that more time is needed to complete its work, the General Secretary or person delegated to act on their behalf, in consultation with the Chair of the Staffing Committee, shall have the power to extend the investigation period for a further period as appropriate.

3.6 Where there appear to be reasonable grounds to believe that a member of UNISON or any other person can give relevant evidence, or has witnessed the alleged misconduct, the Investigation Team shall request an interview with that member or person. The member or person will be invited to produce any evidence including but not limited to any document, printed material, recording or photographic image that he/she or the Investigation Team considers might be relevant to the inquiries of the Investigation Team. A friend or fellow UNISON member may be present at the interview for the purposes of accompanying the member or person but may not answer questions on their behalf.

- 3.7 A request to give evidence to the Investigation Team may be treated as an instruction of the union issued in accordance with the rules and this regulation. In the event of a member unreasonably refusing to respond to the request, or obstructs the investigation process, then evidence of that refusal may be treated as evidence of disregarding a regulation of the union. It shall be open to the National Executive Council to take action against such a member under Rule I.
- 3.8 Strict confidentiality will apply to all aspects of the investigation and evidence will be invited and received on the basis that it is to be treated in strictest confidence. The member facing the allegations, the complainant and all persons invited to attend interview are to maintain confidentiality. In the most exceptional of circumstances it may be necessary to disclose evidence to a person(s) outside the Investigation Team. Examples of exceptional circumstances are a real risk of physical harm if evidence is not disclosed, or when a third party may have witnessed the alleged misconduct, and may not be aware of it.
- 3.9 The Investigation Team shall prepare a report for the General Secretary or the person delegated to act on their behalf, summarising the evidence and will conclude either that:
- a) there are sufficient grounds to believe that the member has committed misconduct in relation to the employee and it is considered appropriate for the matter to proceed to a disciplinary hearing; or
 - b) there are no sufficient grounds to believe that the member has committed misconduct in relation to the employee.
- 4.0 DISCIPLINARY PROCEDURE
- 4.1 In the event that the Investigation Team's conclusion is that the matter proceeds to a disciplinary hearing, a Disciplinary Panel shall be established by the officer responsible for constitutional issues in consultation with the Chair of the Staffing Committee.
- 4.2 The Disciplinary Panel shall consist of a minimum of two and a maximum of three members drawn from the National Executive Council's Disciplinary Committee members and where possible having regard to the nature of the case and the need for proportionality and fair representation. The Panel shall have received appropriate training. The Secretary to the Disciplinary Panel, who shall also be trained, shall be a senior officer of the union chosen from Grade 1, Grade 2 or Assistant General Secretary or equivalent.
- 4.3 The member shall be charged with committing an act (or acts) of misconduct in relation to one or more named employees of the union.
- 4.4 No later than 21 calendar days before the disciplinary hearing the member shall be sent a written notice of the charge setting out the allegations of misconduct. At the same time the member shall be sent copies of any material to be considered in relation to the allegations, together with the report of the Investigation Team, and shall be told the date, time, and place at which the charge against him or her is to be heard. The date of the hearing of the allegations shall be set by the Disciplinary Panel. They shall have the power to postpone the hearing only in exceptional circumstances.
- 4.5 The member must submit, not later than seven working days prior to the hearing, any material in support of his/her case including any witness statement of any witness that the member wishes to call to give evidence at the hearing.

- 4.6 The member shall be entitled to be represented at the hearing by another person of his/her choice (subject to the approval of the Disciplinary Panel and such approval would not be unreasonably refused).
- 4.7 At the hearing the member shall be asked whether he/she accepts or denies the allegation(s). If he/she admits it, the Panel shall then consider whether to impose a penalty or penalties on the member, after considering anything that the member and his/her representative may wish to say or submit in mitigation.
- 4.8 If he/she denies the allegation(s), the Panel shall consider the evidence gathered by the Investigation Team, and the evidence presented by the complainant and/or the member in accordance with 4.4 and 4.5 above. The Disciplinary Panel shall have absolute discretion to decide the procedures to be used during the hearing in line with National Executive Council guidance. It shall be for the Panel to decide which witnesses shall be called, and whether, and to what extent, cross examination and re-examination of any witness will be allowed. The Panel shall also have the power to decide who shall be present during the examination of any witness. Guidance as to the conduct of the procedure including the exercise of the Disciplinary Panel's discretion shall be issued by the National Executive Council.
- 4.9 Strict confidentiality will be maintained throughout the hearing, and any evidence or material considered by the Panel will also be confidential.
- 4.10 The Panel will have absolute discretion to adjourn the hearing to allow for further evidence to be produced or for any other reason.
- 4.11 The Panel shall consider in private whether any allegation is proven, on the balance of probabilities on the evidence presented before them. All members of the Panel taking part in the discussion must have been present throughout the entirety of the hearing. The Disciplinary Panel will only consider the matters in the original allegation(s) against the member. If any point of uncertainty arises, the Disciplinary Panel may reconvene the hearing to hear further evidence.
- 4.12 If the Panel decides that any allegation is not proved, they should dismiss it.
- 4.13 If the Panel decides that the allegation(s) are proved, they shall decide what, if any, penalty to impose. The panel may impose any of the penalties under Rule 1.8 (4)-(7), namely:
- i. Censure of the member;
 - ii. Debarring the member from holding any UNISON office for whatever period seems to it to be appropriate, up to a maximum of 36 months;
 - iii. Suspension of the member from all or any of the benefits of membership for whatever period seems to it to be appropriate, up to a maximum of 36 months;
 - iv. Expulsion of the member from the union.
- 4.14 Before determining its decision and the level of sanction, the Panel may consider anything that the member and/or his/her representative may wish to say in mitigation.
- 4.15 The Panel may inform the member of its decision orally, but it shall in any event be confirmed to the member in writing within 5 working days of the conclusion of the hearing. Where the allegation(s) are found proved, the member shall be notified of his/her right of appeal, and the date on which the 3 week time limit for appealing expires.

4.16 If the member intends to appeal, he/she must exercise his/her right to do so by writing to the Secretary of the Panel within 21 calendar days of the date of the letter notifying of the decision subject to the appeal.

4.17 A member may appeal upon any or all of the following grounds:

a) That the provisions of Appendix 2 were not complied with at or before the original hearing, or that there has been a procedural irregularity, in either case such irregularity has had a material bearing on the outcome and/or any penalty imposed;

b) The Panel's decision to find an allegation or allegations proven was unreasonable on the evidence available;

c) The sanction imposed by the Panel was unreasonable and not commensurate with the allegation(s) proved.

4.18 Unless exceptional circumstances apply, normally no new evidence will be permitted to be produced at the appeal hearing. The admission of new evidence shall be at the discretion of the Appeal Panel who must be satisfied that the evidence could not have been obtained with reasonable diligence before the Panel's decision was made and that it may have had a material bearing on the outcome.

5.0 APPEAL PROCEDURE

5.1 At least 21 calendar days notice shall be given to the member of the date, place, and time at which the appeal is to be heard.

5.2 The Appeal Panel shall consist of a minimum of two, and a maximum of three members, drawn from the National Appeals Committee with no previous involvement with the case, and where possible having regard to the nature of the case and the need for proportionality and fair representation.

5.3 The Appeal Panel will consider all the member's grounds of appeal and may conduct a review of the procedures used in the investigation, and in the disciplinary hearing. If the Appeal Panel determines that inadequate procedures were used, then it shall review the evidence considered, and in addition, consider any evidence that was not available to the Disciplinary Panel due to the operation of the inadequate procedure.

5.4 The Appeal Panel will have absolute discretion to establish whatever procedure it considers appropriate to hear the appeal. Guidance as to the conduct of the procedure and the exercise of the Disciplinary Panel's discretion shall be issued by the National Executive Council.

5.5 The Appeal Panel shall have the power to confirm or vary any part of the decision of the Disciplinary Panel that is the subject of an appeal, or of the penalty or penalties imposed. The Appeal Panel may inform the member of its decision orally, but it shall in any event be confirmed to the member in writing within 14 calendar days of the conclusion of the hearing.
