BRANCH SECRETARY BLOG

LAS UNISON Branch Secretary Eric Roberts has today launched his own blog.

The blog can be accessed via the branch website www.lasunison.com or you can access it directly at www.ericblog.lasunison.com

Eric's Blog is here to inform members about life within the LAS from the Union's perspective. As we enter a difficult political period for all of us, this Blog will help to keep members informed about what the Union is actually doing (as opposed to the half-truths and misrepresentations that are banded around). The Branch Secretary, as lead negotiator, along with the Branch Chair, Branch Officers and Senior Unison Sector Reps are all involved in day to day negotiations and consultations (as well as representing individual members) and this Blog will help to communicate and clarify that work.

Along with the serious side of the Union we also hope that this Blog will be a light-hearted approach and we hope you enjoy it.

The Blog will be updated on a regular basis.

Eric Roberts
Branch Secretary
